Luncheon Meeting, Wednesday, January 24th

The Club Restaurant at McInnis Park, 350 Smith Ranch Road, San Rafael
11:30 am – 1:00 pm

Speaker: Ben Wolinsky, Coalition Chair of Marin GOP Central Committee
Topic: Getting Your 2024 Candidates Elected – How You Can Do It!

Did you ever wonder the purpose of the Marin County Republican Central Committee? And how does it relate to the members of Marin Republican Women Federated and other local Republican political groups? Do we operate together? Does the Central Committee have any influence over the local Republican clubs? Just what is its purpose in the hierarchy of California Republicans?

According to its website, the Central Committees exist to mobilize and represent the Republican Party membership in issues of local importance including fielding candidates for local Boards and statewide elections, raising funds, increasing registration, voter turnout and reaching out to key related groups.

Our January luncheon speaker, Ben Wolinsky, serves as Coalition Chair for the Marin Republican Central Committee. He will be working hard this next year to assist the various local Republican clubs to become active in the campaigns of our Republican candidates. Ben is also a delegate to the California Republican Party.

As an attorney, Ben specializes in constitutional litigation. He has a BA from Duke University and a JD from Georgetown Law. A Marin County resident of Mill Valley with his wife and daughter (a second daughter is due next month), Ben has good reason to work towards electing conservative members of school boards and local councils.

Community Projects

Thank you to all who filled out our volunteer form. Happily, we have three members who have volunteered to co-chair Cards and Gifts for Cops. Other members have expressed interest in writing Valentines to Seniors in our communities and in volunteering at the Book Exchange. Below is a description (paraphrased) from the Book Exchange's website.

The Book Exchange is a community service organization run entirely by volunteers who believe in the power of literacy to change lives. The Exchange promotes child literacy, encourages a love of reading, and works to ensure that all children have access to books. Donations from generous sponsors fund classroom field trips from schools in Marin's most under-resourced communities to the facility. Each child chooses a bag of free books to take home. Books are provided at little or no cost to teachers, families, and nonprofit organizations. Donations of books and money help fulfill a big community need. The Exchange especially needs Spanish language books. The most popular books are related to soccer, trucks, cars, and airplanes. Visit to donate or purchase gently used books during open hours.

Goals and Values:

- To acknowledge and positively impact the effects of social and economic inequality by ensuring that all children can have good books in their homes.
- To enable all children, especially children of underserved communities, to see themselves and their communities represented in books and to broaden their world through reading.
- To support educators as they develop and inspire the next generation of readers.

I am looking for a member to organize Wednesday volunteers!
The Exchange welcomes classroom field trips on Wednesdays.

It is located at 852 Del Ganado Rd., San Rafael, CA 94903

Thank you for always making a difference in our community.
Happy 2024!

Mary Grove, President

Americanism

A Party that gave Birth to a Nation

We just celebrated - on December 23, 2023 - the 250th anniversary of the Boston Tea Party. That act of defiance sparked the American Revolution demanding our liberty from "the unjust power of a government exceeding its enumerated authorities." The significance of that act and what would follow come from a piece in "American Thinker" by James Poplar (12/16/23):

Little did the colonists realize this symbolic act of defiance of 'No taxation without representation' would lead to the formation of the greatest Republic known to mankind - the United States of America. In creating our system of government, the Founding Fathers were not perfect nor pretended to be, and they were neither gods nor angels but rather complex, prejudiced, yet visionary men who dared to create this great experiment in human governance at the risk of losing their lives and all possessions. They also knew that they were in a race against time because the window of opportunity to launch such an endeavor rarely comes in history and quickly passes.

As one reader commented: It is critical that we remind ourselves of these important dates. They anchor us and help us recall American heroism and courage - and inspire us to act likewise.

Congratulations on being our Woman of the Year 2023!

Satellite Club Party – Sunday Dec. 3rd

We had a wonderful Christmas party at Loch Lomond Yacht Club in San Rafael. It was great to celebrate the season with like-minded friends. The decorations were especially festive, and we had good old-fashioned music to cheer everyone on. We enjoyed ham, Chinese chicken salad, and many delicious sweets: baklava, pie, and candies. I'm sure everyone gained a pound or two!! And on top of that, the bartender was a good Republican and poured out the wine and whiskey!! It was a beautiful day overall.

Our next Satellite club event will take place on January 26. Jan Miller has generously offered her home in San Rafael for the occasion. Hope to see you all there!!

Legislative Analysis

By Ruth Holly – MRWF Legislative Reporter

The Two-Thirds Legislative Vote and Voter Approval for New or Increased Taxes Initiative, a citizen-initiated change to the California constitution, has qualified for the November ballot. This proposal is another attempt to control excessive government taxation and spending. Prior propositions limiting the government include Proposition 13 (1978), Proposition 62 (1986), Proposition 218 (1996), and Proposition 26 (2010).

The initiative requires that all state and local increases in non-exempt fees, including those increased by court order or by government agencies, be subject to voter approval and that the type, rate, duration, and use of the tax must be clearly stated and legally binding. It places the burden on the government to prove that a fee is exempt and does not exceed the actual cost of providing the service. Noncompliant taxes adopted after January 1, 2022, would be voided one year after the passage of the initiative unless reenacted.

Action	Current Vote Requirement	Proposed Vote Requirement
State tax increase by state legislature	Two-thirds legislative vote	Two-thirds legislative vote and simple majority of voters
State tax decrease by state legislature	Simple majority legislative vote	No change
State tax increase by citizen initiative	Simple majority of voters	No change
Local general tax increase by local board	Two-thirds vote by governing board and simple majority of voters	No change
Local special tax increase by local board	Two-thirds vote by governing board and two-thirds vote by voters	No change
Local special tax increase by citizen initiative	Simple majority of voters	Two-thirds of voters

The government is fighting this proposition. The legislature placed two initiatives on the November ballot: ACA 1 which lowers the voter threshold for approving local taxes for affordable housing and infrastructure from two-thirds to 55%; and ACA 13 which would make it more difficult to raise thresholds on new taxes by requiring that a measure that seeks to increase the threshold be passed by the same threshold. Additionally, Governor Newsom filed an emergency petition with the California Supreme Court asking them to prevent the initiative from appearing on the ballot. The California Supreme Court has agreed to hear his argument that the ballot initiative does not qualify because it includes too many changes to the state constitution. Finally, if the initiative is allowed on the ballot, it will be described as follows: Limits Ability of Voters and State and Local Governments to Raise Revenues for Government Services; instead of: Limits Ability of Government to Tax Constituents; Protects Taxpayers from insatiable Tax Collectors and Tax Beneficiaries.

Reparations, Bullet Train, 64% State Spending Increase: California's Democrats Choose Power Over the People

We have no relief from the state's out-of-touch politicians

By Katy Grimes, December 26, 2023 – California Globe
[Note: underlined text is 'hot-linked' to supporting reports]

California's Democrat super-majority Legislature and governor are moving full-steam ahead with reparations for black descendants of slaves, the high speed rail, and have increased spending a staggering 64% since Gavin Newsom was elected in 2019. But not on anything to make the lives better for the people – Democrats continually choose power over the people, treating taxpayers as a cash cow.

With 16 new laws starting January 1st “that cover everything from campsite reservations to child sex trafficking,” there is no tax relief, or crime relief, or relief from the homeless living on our streets, or relief from the criminals being let out of prison, or for that matter, no relief from the state's out-of-touch politicians.

While California has plenty of very serious issues that need to be addressed by its elected lawmakers, the Legislature and governor appear to have a very different agenda, and are not the least bit interested in correcting their own bad policies.

If it appears politicians don't care about the people they convinced to elect them, you'd be right – because so many are wholly owned subsidiaries of their funders. Once they receive your vote, it's on to their real agenda – for big labor unions, the environmental lobby, and myriad other well-funded special interest groups.

And that brings us to the crisis that is California.

We start with California's $68 billion budget deficit – which notably does not include the state's more than $1 trillion unfunded pension and health care liability for its retired government employees, or the massive debt California owes to the federal government for the EDD unemployment fraud during the COVID pandemic.

Could a California revenue shortfall mean furloughs for state employees? California went from a $100 Billion budget “surplus” to “we many need to layoff state workers.”

“General Fund Expenditures Per Capita have climbed 63.9% since Governor Newsom took office, growing at more than twice the annual rate at which those expenditures grew under Governor Brown (10.4% vs. 4.7%)” state finance expert David Crane reported at his Govern For California website.
