Virtual Meeting Live on-line, Wed. Feb. 24th

From your home and on your computer or telephone

11:30 am - 12:30 pm

Speaker: Cynthia Thacker

CFRW Vice President, Political Activist

Topic: How You Can Be A Player Now – the Phone

Every time you are 'voting'; that is, every time you make a phone call, write a letter, comment verbally at a Supervisor meeting, you are exercising your rights of free speech and your rights to do what you can do as CFRW members to affect our governance.

Cynthia is our CFRW 3rd VP, Political Activities 2020 - 2021, a new office created in the 2019 restructuring of CFRW. She considers it not just 'Political Activities' but rather 'Political Activist'. Prior to taking this office, she was the Orange County President (2018-2019) and Fullerton RWF President (2015-2016). She is also currently serving on the OCGOP Central Committee, as well as a delegate to CAGOP for last 6 years. She ran for the 65th CA Assembly in 2020. She is taking Voter ID to the U.S. Congress, a project she knows how to do.

During this, her first term, she created many 'Calls to Action' that made our members more active on projects and helped increase our volunteer hours even in lock downs. Soon she will be leading our new CFRW Political Activities projects for the upcoming 2021 year.

Cynthia says "I am passionate about Republican values and being part of the RED WAVE to return California to a government that cares about people and wants less government, taxes and regulations, wants to restore law and order and public safety, and wants to encourage individual success over government handouts."

Join us on-line on February 24, 2021. Get your questions answered by this "Activist".

Presidents' Report

I was having so much trouble figuring out what to say in this letter with all the disappointing events since my last one following the election. Then I watched some “alternative” news tonight, and I am actually laughing out loud. Did you know that an hour before the inauguration the White House butler was fired, so that when Joe and Jill arrived there after the ceremony they were locked out? No one there to let them in. Maybe there are still teeny bits of justice out there.

We are all so frustrated with the obvious corruption in this last election. Regardless of the Left's assertions of baseless accusations, I and, I guess, many of you watched the hearings in the swing states. Testimony after testimony of wrongdoings on all fronts. When I ask Democrat friends about them, they all ask, “What hearings?” Incredible. We all live in two parallel universes right now with separate buckets of completely disparate information. It is like watching a bad movie. It has become almost impossible to talk to family and even the best of old friends. Such difficult times.

We watched President Trump follow every legal, constitutional avenue - all levels of the courts, the FBI, the DOJ, and the state legislatures - to right the obvious wrongdoings. None had the courage to make the right move. I really believed that this fraud would not be allowed to stand, even if the military had to move to stop it. I was too optimistic.

What is so apparent is that we all need to step up and work with all our energy to get election integrity back. I understand California is tough, but we need to push here and in other states too. We need to call, email, and protest peacefully but adamantly for transparent elections. We need to demand voting machines that ONLY COUNT VOTES. We all need to volunteer to watch every moment of the voting process. That is the only way we will see real justice. If you are feeling down, just remember Joe standing and knocking on the White House door. That has to make you laugh too.

Jane Maushardt, President

1776 Commission & Report

“To be an American means something noble and good. It means treasuring freedom and embracing the vitality of self-government. [...] We are united by the glory of our history. And we are distinguished by the American virtues of openness, honesty, optimism, determination, generosity, confidence, kindness, hard work, courage, and hope. Our principles did not create these virtues, but they laid the groundwork for them to grow and spread and forge America into the most just and glorious country in all of human history.”

Americanism

In any other age, those words would not be seen as controversial. But today we have two versions of U.S. history and culture. The above is the traditional version and comes from the 1776 Commission's recently published report. The second version comes from woke progressives and embodies the NYT's 1619 Project, “critical race theory,” and “white supremacy.”

Within hours of his inauguration, Joe Biden revoked the 1776 Commission and its report.

Going to Sacramento.
Contact Sarah.

Everybody can help –
Write notes to be included in the boxes we pack. Troopers just love getting notes. Sarah Nagle will pick them up from you. sarah@nagleforge.com.

We are working on this field trip idea. We will set a date/day for a trip to Sacramento. The destination is the warehouse of Move America Forward where they have crews of volunteers pack 'goody' boxes for our soldiers on active duty. Volunteer for this 'Support our Troops!' This may be in addition to Friday evening or a replacement for our Friday event

February 26th, Friday evening –
This is our next scheduled Satellite Club event. Now we all know that we are daily adjusting to the ebb and flow of the government's virus lockdown pronouncements. We will do something on this evening, so put it on your calendar. It will be a surprise. It will be indoors or outdoors.

We will be thinking about what to do on February 26th. If you have any ideas let us know. Call Jane Maushardt.

Volunteer to be the 2021 Satellite Chair. We need a Member to step up and be the Chair of this on-going monthly get-together. If you are a regular attendee, that is you!

Voter Registration February Volunteers

Our next Voter Registration effort will be in February 2021 after things settle down. This month get in to 'Action'. Here is an assignment that MRWF needs to be active in:

Volunteer with 4 other MRWF's to walk one precinct – hang Republican door hangers, talk to No Party Preference residents. This is a test to see if we can move some of these voters into the Republican column in spring 2021.

Contact me to get on my list of volunteers. My email is acfenstermaker@comcast.net

Show Some Love

Boycott Hallmark

Support Senator Josh Hawley

Boycotts are as Republican as Abraham Lincoln

Cancel culture is a cancer on American culture and too many big corporations seem to be in favor of it. We are in favor of Free Speech; we don't want our politicians to bow to the whims of big corporations. In the second week of January 2021 the Hallmark Company publicly showed their displeasure with Senator Josh Hawley by requesting he return campaign donations. At the time the Hallmark company was very open about why they wanted to publicly disavow Senator Hawley —Senator Hawley supported President Trump. (Now Hallmark is backpedaling and claiming they just don't want to be political... we suspect Hallmark noticed that Trump supporters buy cards.) We fully support the Hallmark company's right to not give money to politicians they don't approve of. But as Americans we feel WE HAVE THE RIGHT TO NOT GIVE MONEY TO A CORPORATION THAT IS IN FAVOR OF CANCELLING DISSENT. If a crony corporatist wants to strip away OUR free speech rights, guess what? WE ARE VERY COMFORTABLE CANCELLING THEIR ACCESS TO OUR WALLETS. Get serious about how you spend YOUR money. Cancel THEIR access to YOUR wallet.

What to do? Well... You can refrain from spending ANY money on Hallmark products this Valentine's Day. You can make your own cards... Better yet... You can make a card and send it to Josh Hawley pledging YOUR support of his stance. And you can tell all YOUR friends.... Valentine's Day is too special not to show your love... Show that love is bigger than Hallmark. You don't need a corporate card to show you care. Show Hawley and Hallmark you care. Send a card. Join the boycott.

Contact: Senator Josh Hawley
212 Russell Senate Office Building
Washington DC 20510

Now go to Page 6 and follow these directions. Have fun! This Hallmark boycott is easy and fun! It will bring smiles.

MRWF Valentine Project for you and your family. It is a push-back on Hallmark for their bad 'cancel culture' behavior toward Senator Hawley. To do: Copy page 6. Cut out the page/image. Fold it using the instructions in the right upper box. Get some Valentine stickers or cut out hearts from construction paper. Glue them over the instruction box. Then . . . write a thank you note to Senator Josh Hawley on that Happy Valentine's section of your 'home-made' 'non-Hallmark' card. Put your hand-made Valentine in an envelope. Address it to Senator Josh Hawley – see his address on Page 5.

Visit us on the web at www.mrwf.org

HAPPY VALENTINE'S

How to use: After printing use the cut lines to fold making a long edge, and then fold again half along the short edge. Make sure front is facing. Choose a piece of decorative construction paper or wrapping paper and cut out a heart and glue over this note! Write your own sentiment inside and mail!

Cancel culture is a cancer on American culture and too many big corporations seem to be in favor of it. We are in favor of Free Speech, we don't want our politicians to bow to the whims of big corporations. In the second week of January 2021 the Hallmark Company publicly showed their displeasure with Senator Josh Hawley because he dared to take an unpopular position. We fully support the Hallmark company's right to not give money to politicians they don't approve of. But as Americans we feel WE HAVE THE RIGHT TO NOT GIVE MONEY TO A CORPORATION THAT IS IN FAVOR OF CANCELLING DISSENT. If a crony corporatist wants to strip away OUR free speech rights, guess what? WE ARE VERY COMFORTABLE CANCELLING THEIR ACCESS TO OUR WALLETS. Get serious about how you spend YOUR money. Cancel THEIR access to YOUR wallet.

Show Some Love, Join the Hallmark boycott.

Free speech is an American birthright. It is common these days to talk about how "dangerous" speaking out in this era of mobs, doxing and violence can be. Guess what? It is even more dangerous to live in a world without free speech. We are repeating this because it is disturbing how many people we encounter believe that free speech is something that should be CONTROLLED by large corporations and small minded media flunkies. We don't think Benjamin Franklin would have much respect for the average media talking head of the 21st century. And we believe Main Street is a better example of true American values and innovation than a lumbering and larded big corporation. We make our voices heard in different ways, right now we are making our voices heard in a fundamentally American way. We are peacefully boycotting a company we don't think respects our opinions.
