How can we strengthen our club, draw more members, and become a stronger advocate for conservative values in our community? What makes a successful club? Come hear Annette De Modena, CFRW Region 1 Director, talk about building a stronger organization. Share your ideas on what is most important to you and hear her suggestions on how to build on these. Now, more than ever, we need to create momentum and revitalize the Republican brand!

Annette De Modena spent 28 years teaching high school English, History, and Western Civilization. After retiring in 2010, she found herself drawn to run for Humboldt County Supervisor. Though she lost the election, she gained recognition and was asked to be President of Humboldt County Republican Women, Federated — a dream come true! Since then, she has served in several Humboldt County RWF and CFRW positions. When not busy in politics, she proudly serves on the Board of the Sequoia Park Zoo Foundation.

Join us to hear Annette’s recipe for club success: a strong foundation — based on respect, diligence, and unity of purpose. Let’s make our club the vehicle through which to make our voices heard. Let’s ROAR!

Presidents' Report

Run for Your School Board!!!

We are all concerned by how much liberal ideology and attitudes on sex, gender identity, racism, politics and our country's history have quietly crept into our school system, even at early elementary levels, under the noses of most parents. I frequently hear from parent friends and widely read that parents were appalled during the "learn at home" days of Covid to see what was being pushed on their children as "education" rather than "indoctrination". There may be one benefit of Covid after all as parental eyes were opened.

Many legislatures and school boards are not only unresponsive to the objections of parents but are dismissive and even vitriolic. Should teachers or parents have the say about our children's lives? Fortunately, parents in states like Utah, Arizona and Texas are standing up to school boards, driving them out and replacing them, demanding that they respect the wishes and values of parents. While primarily happening now over the issues of school openings and child mask-wearing, this is extending toward parental efforts to abolish unwanted politically based curricula. Other governors and legislatures are now stepping up, prohibiting Critical Race Theory, for example, from being taught in their states. Of course, our California legislature voted to require it.

Everyone should commit to start attending your local school board meetings. Find out the School Boards Meeting schedules here: Directory of Marin Public & Private School Staff & Organizations / School Board Meeting Dates \(marinschools.org\)

In Marin County, there are more than 33 education related seats up for grabs in the 2022 election. WE MUST FILL THOSE POSITIONS WITH REPUBLICANS AND CONSERVATIVES! Our state's overly powerful and liberal teachers' union can only be reined in by strong, motivated school boards that require them to keep politics out of the classroom and stick to teaching traditional courses that actually prepare children for productive lives.

Jane Maushardt, President

Membership Report

If it were a different year, I think all of our members would have renewed their membership and paid their dues before now. So, I am sending a reminder to those of you who put it on your to do list. Although we cannot gather in large numbers, the club is still "in business," so to speak, and working on the usual projects and lending support to traditional conservative causes. We need your help, and we need all our members to remember the comfort being a part of the MRWF community brings to us here in Marin, such a great group of gals and associate men to share thoughts with.

After summer break, we will be back in person as before and starting work on our fundraiser. It would be wonderful if each of us tried to introduce a new person to the MRWF group. Regular membership is $40 and Associate Membership (regular members of another club, gentlemen, and non-citizens) is $25.

Membership forms are available on our website at www.mrwf.org under the Home tab or in the back of each newsletter. Keep a copy of the membership form in case you happen to meet a like-minded person. Dues should be sent to Elise Vitale, 75 Kipling Drive, Mill Valley, CA, or email me at eclair13@hotmail.com.

Member Birthdays

The American Story – from The Claremont Institute

The American Story is a podcast published once a week, every Tuesday, since Constitution Day 2019. Each episode is a 6-8 minute story about what it is that makes America beautiful, heartbreaking, funny, inspiring, and endlessly interesting.

The episodes stretch from battlefields and patriot graves to back roads, schoolyards, bar stools, city halls, blues joints, summer afternoons, old neighborhoods, ballparks, and deserted beaches — everywhere you find Americans being and becoming American. They are true stories about what it is that makes America beautiful, what it is that makes America good, and therefore worthy of love. Each episode aims in some small way to awaken the better angels of our nature, to welcome us into and encourage us to enrich the great American story.

Take a listen: Podcast Archive - The American Story \(theamericanstorypodcast.org\). You can either subscribe on the website or via your favorite podcast app - or drop in now-and-then when you simply need a pick-me-up.

CALLING YOU to join in.

Your helping hands and talents are needed for all the MRWF activities. Get on the lists; call the project chair listed.

Veterans

Unfortunately, the Veterans' Homes cannot accept your donations at this time. Here is what you can do to continue your support for our Veterans.

Go to Move America Forward and support our Active Duty Troops. Donate a package to a Trooper, a Squad or a Platoon!

It is easy. This is your link:

Voter Registration June Volunteers

Our next Voter Registration effort will be in June 2021 after things settle down. This month get in to 'Action'. Here are two assignments that MRWF needs to be active in:

- 1) Volunteer with 4 other MRWF's to walk one precinct – hang Republican door hangers, talk to No Party Preference residents. This is a test to see if we can move some of these voters in to the Republican column in spring 2021.
- 2) Contact me to get on my list of volunteers for May. My email is acfenstermaker@comcast.net.

Arlene Fenstermaker, Voter Registration Chair

Special Election – May 4, 2021 Mail-In

San Rafael Schools funding - Measures G and H.

Increase parcel tax to fund elementary and high schools.

Recommending NO

Result: Both were passed by the required two-thirds vote of the registered voters who turned in their ballot.

Keep in mind here that every San Rafael registered voter received a ballot by mail. Only 30% of them bothered to vote. And that 'less-than-a-majority' just voted to increase parcel tax on 100% of their property-owning neighbors. Again it demonstrates that those who show up are your Rulers.

Better to show up and be a Ruler, than to be one of the Ruled.

MRWF Satellite Club

This event is being listed again in this, our June newsletter: May 28th, Friday evening – This is our next scheduled Satellite Club event. Now we all know that we are daily shedding the government's overreach from our psyches and our actions. This event will be at a member's home so put it on your calendar. It will be a surprise.

Thank you to the Erbels for hosting us April 28th at their local facility's community room.

Call Jane Maushardt: Volunteer to be the 2021 Satellite Chair. We need a Member to step up and be the Chair of this on-going monthly get-together. If you are a regular attendee, that is you!

The next Satellite Club event will be September 24th.

Now, if you want to have some pop-up event(s) during the summer months, go ahead and organize them; invite your fellow members, friends and family. It would be fun to have a few of those.

Our member Mary H. attended on 5/8/2021. Here is what she said about it. 'Yes, I was able to attend and loved it. Exactly what I was looking for. The instructors were professional and knew their stuff. I now feel more confident about my knowledge of firearms and how to handle one safely. Kudos to Women on Target!!'

Community Project Fundraiser

MRWF is scheduling this event in fall 2021. Did you attend our April 24th Lunch and meet Sharon Wood?

Legislative Report - California

By CFRW Legislative Analyst Committee

Date: 5/5/2021

HOMELESSNESS

SB 344 – Homeless shelters grants: pet and veterinary services

– This bill would REQUIRE the Department of Housing and Community Development to implement and administer a grant program for qualified homeless shelters to provide shelter, food and basic veterinary services for pets owned by homeless people. This bill is in suspense in the Appropriations committee, meaning it will get a fiscal review at the same time as other bills with a significant fiscal impact on the state budget.

ELECTIONS

SB 583 – Elections: Voter registration: California new Motor-Voter program – This bill would require the Department of Motor Vehicles to transmit specified information to the Secretary of State with respect to a person who, when submitting an application for a driver's license or identification card, provides documentation demonstrating United States citizenship and that the person is of an eligible age to register or preregister to vote, among other requirements. Set for a hearing on May 10.

EMPLOYMENT

SB 321 – Employment Safety Standards: household domestic services. Existing law, the California Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1973, requires employers to comply with certain standards ensuring healthy and safe working conditions, as specified. Existing law defines "employment," for purposes of the act, to include the carrying on of any trade, enterprise, project, industry, business, occupation, or work, including all excavation, demolition, and construction work, or any process or operation in any way related thereto, in which any person is engaged or permitted to work for hire, except household domestic service. This bill would delete the above-described exception for household domestic service, thereby making it subject to the act.

COVID-19 Return to Site-Based Instruction \(google.com\).

My sources and interviews produced the fact that a Marin elementary school was opened for five days in person on May 10 for both teachers and students. It will recess for the summer on June 10. Marin High Schools are not open full schedule in this same time period; they have some in person days for 3 ½ hours in the mornings; with afternoons on-line and the full day Wednesday as an on-line day.

Why are schools opening and then closing? Best guess is that they can get Federal grant money; they will pay their past bills, then have no money going forward to open in the fall 2021. The state of California is broke; it is in a status of 'structural deficit'; it has no money and cannot borrow money which means it has no cash flow. The faucet has been turned off. Look for the 'bell-wether' announcement by Newsom that there will be no school in the fall 2021 for whatever reason he can come up with. Read The Great State Budget Con - WSJ

Marin Government – a new Sheriff

By MRWF Legislative Analyst

Date: 5/12/2021 Special Report

After a quarter of a century and only one contested election, Marin County Sheriff Robert Doyle will retire from his post in 2022. The race for the seat has begun: Undersheriff Jamie Scardina, who was endorsed by the sheriff after two decades with the county department, announced his run against newcomer Adam McGill, the city manager of Novato. – Point Reyes Light 2/3/2021

... This week, the Light spoke with Undersheriff Scardina. The 45-year-old Marinwood resident and father of two has spent nearly his entire career rising in the ranks of the Marin County Sheriff's Office after getting his start with the Tiburon Police Department.

bachelor’s degree in sociology and criminology from the University of Montana; in 1998, he put himself through the police academy. He has served as a deputy for six years, a detective for two, a sergeant for four, a lieutenant for eight, a captain for one. He has been in his current position for two years and, for the past six months on a temporary basis, has been filling in as the chief of police for Tiburon.

His interest in leading Marin’s law enforcement stems from his department’s support for him to take the reins, he told the Light.

Light: What made you decide to run for sheriff?

Scardina: It’s about my community. I truly believe in partnering with my community, providing leadership and excellent service and public safety. This is my home, this is my community, this is what I’ve grown into. I want nothing more than to continue to serve the community where I live. My opponent has been in several different places, but he doesn’t have the deep roots in Marin County like I do and the long-established relationships that I have built. I’m not looking for that next shiny new quarter: The County of Marin is my shiny quarter, and this is where I want to be. These are the residents I want to serve.

I think more importantly, this organization wants me to be their sheriff. And that gives me a tremendous amount of pride when I have members of our organization saying, “Hey, we want you to be our next sheriff. We want you to be our next leader.”

As City Manager running for sheriff, McGill walks a narrow ethical line

By Dick Spotswood 1/27/2021 Marin IJ - Excerpted

Dick Spotswood: As city manager running for sheriff, McGill walks narrow ethical line – Marin Independent Journal \(marinij.com\)

In the past 38 years, only two people have served as Marin County sheriff.

From 1982 and until retirement in 1996, Charles Prandi had that duty. The current sheriff-coroner, West Novato’s Bob Doyle, was appointed by the Board of Supervisors in 1996 to replace Prandi. After being reelected six times, Doyle will not seek reelection in 2022, creating a wide-open race to determine his successor.

The sheriff isn’t literally Marin’s top law enforcement officer but he is surely the county’s most visible top cop. In addition to coroner, the sheriff is police chief for the county’s unincorporated communities, manages the county jail and provides court bailiffs. Doyle has 207 sworn deputies, 114 other law enforcement personnel and manages a $68 million budget.

Marin’s sheriff has no duties within incorporated municipalities where chiefs of police run the show. Pursuant to California’s constitution, the sheriff is directly elected countywide. As such, the post is not answerable to the Board of Supervisors but cooperates with them to craft a budget.

Transparent California indicates Marin’s sheriff-coroner earned $239,489 during 2019 in regular pay, additional compensation of $18,186 and $99,237 in benefits for a total compensation package of $356,912.

. . . McGill, a Modesto-area native, spent three years as Novato’s top cop before moving up to city manager 18 months ago. He previously served as police chief in Truckee (Nevada County) and Newman (Stanislaus County).

. . . McGill replied, “The Code of Ethics is a guideline not the law. Before I decided to run for sheriff, I spoke to all five councilmembers. I wouldn’t have run without their approval. That should resolve any ethical question.”
