Presidents' Report

This is how tyranny starts. With promises that it's "only for a couple of weeks," "it's to save lives," "so the hospitals won't be overwhelmed," "to flatten the curve" – those are just some of the reasons given for the house arrest we are under, now going into its third month. And as none of you reading this is surprised, the most egregious examples of that tyranny are in states whose governors have "D's" after their names.

On May 1, many disgruntled and worried Californians rallied in Sacramento at the Capitol Building to protest the continuing lock-down. Led by Melanie Morgan, MRWF members Faye Bourret, Kathryn and Peter Thompson, Sarah Nagle, and a number of associate members joined the grid-lock demonstration. News sources reported over 1000 participants with 32 arrests on the Capitol steps. My estimate is that another 4000 participants were in cars circling the Capitol Mall. Police were ensuring gridlock by closing off streets. After driving just a few blocks in over two hours, when Peter and Kathryn heard that equestrian officers were arriving and orders were being given to disperse, we headed home. News reports called people rowdy, although we did not see any of that. They also made note that no one wore masks.

Sacramento County has slightly fewer Covid 19 deaths than Marin (.003% versus .005% of the county population), but curiously masks are not required there, as they are in Marin. Gathering for the rally in a downtown Sacramento Target parking lot, we noted that only 1/4 to 1/3 of the shoppers there wore masks. On our way home, we stopped at the Vacaville Costco for gas and observed the same thing. Marinites cannot enter a store without a mask – are we "safer"? Only time will tell, but we venture that "no" we are not.

So, register your discontent with our county and state officials, unless you are okay with the current state of life. We know we are all looking forward to being together in the fall. Additionally, we may try to have summer meetings. For any of you who have lost family or friends, our deepest sympathy. If you need to talk or vent, feel free to call any MRWF Board members. May there soon be brighter days on the horizon; be safe and see you all soon.

In closing, "The greater the power, the more dangerous the abuse." – Edmund Burke (1729 – 1797)

Jane Maushardt and Kathryn Thompson, Co-Presidents

Membership Matters

I hope that you are all well and safe among the craziness of this "pandemic." Though our membership efforts and recruitment is a bit stalled due to circumstances, we encourage all of you to continue to talk about the club in your Zoom meetings and social distancing situations. We currently have 99 regular members and 47 associate members. We would love to try to get as many new members as we can when we finally get to be together in person at our luncheons and Satellite evening events, and most importantly join in the effort to re-elect our great President Donald Trump! Unfortunately, being at the mercy of Gavin Newsom, we really have no idea when it will actually be possible to be together.

Having been on social media, I have witnessed in California a very distinct rumbling of conservatives rising up, as well as a surprising number of liberals who are opening their eyes and are fed up. I am sure that there are quite a lot of the same in Marin county. We need to talk them up!

Please continue to send in your membership renewal dues, if you have not already done so. Remember that our regular membership dues have increased to $40, and our associate membership dues have stayed the same at $25. Associate members are women that belong to another Republican Women Federated club, Republican men, and non-citizens. When we

Nikki Haley's Message to 2020 Graduates

\ From 'An Attitude of Gratitude' by Nikki Haley, WSJ, May 2, 2020.*

My parents came from India in the early 1970s. They experienced their share of discrimination, and I don't mean just uncomfortable looks. Yet, they found opportunity and made a home for us.

As a little girl, I never dreamed that I would become a governor and an ambassador, but I think my mom and dad did. Their American experience wasn't perfect, but they knew that their children had unmatched opportunities here.

Americanism

Be thankful to be alive in America in 2020. The U.S. isn't perfect, but we have been given a great set of tools - freedom, the rule of law, and respect for human rights - with which to create a more perfect union. Don't take these gifts for granted. Be grateful for them; preserve them. Use them to make a better life for yourself and your family, for the less fortunate and for generations to come.

can finally all be together again, we encourage you to please bring friends and family members as guests to our luncheons. MRWF memberships also make great birthday gifts. Membership forms can be found on Page 7 in this newsletter or on our website. Click here www.mrwf.org, then click on the Home tab.

In closing we hope that you all continue to stay positive and healthy. I close with a quote from a country song, "Tough times don't last. Tough people do." If we have learned anything in the last three years by example of our incredibly strong and tough president, we conservatives in Marin need to stay strong, stay united, and stay tough!

MEMBER BIRTHDAYS

Community Projects Reports

Your helping hands and talents are needed for all the MRWF activities. Get on the lists; call the project chair listed.

VETERANS

The San Francisco VA Hospital is happily accepting books, DVDs, and new lap blankets, socks, shoes, and other clothing, especially warm stuff. The hospital no longer accepts used clothing.

The Veterans Home in Yountville seeks playing cards, puzzles, puzzle books, handkerchiefs, ball caps, and non-perishable snack foods like chips, soup cups, Vienna sausages, candy, and popcorn.

Both facilities can always use stamps and stationery.

Donations can be brought to any of our meetings and are tax deductible if you include your name and address with the items. Pick-ups outside of meetings can also be arranged. Questions? Please call Anne at 415-302-0330.

Anne Brenneis, Veterans Project Chair

FLAG DAY JUNE 14, 2020

How you can celebrate: Fly your flag, donate to the troops, attend a community event celebrating our flag.

VOTER REGISTRATION

Our next Voter Registration effort will be in September 2020 before the General Election. This month get in to 'Action'. Here are two assignments that MRWF members need to be active in:

- 1) Volunteer to call Marin Republicans - the mission is to get-out-the-vote. We need all 20,000 of these registered Marin Republicans to vote on November 3, 2020.
- 2) Army For Trump sign up to make phone calls.

<https://www.armyfortrump.com/>

Contact me to get on my list of volunteers. My email is acfenstermaker@comcast.net

Arlene Fenstermaker, Voter Registration Chair

MRWF SATELLITE CLUB

We hope that you are getting ready for another election of President Trump on November 3, 2020.

But. . . He cannot do it without you nor can our California Republican Congressmen.

The Week – will this be the same cover in 2020 as it is here in the 11/18/2016 issue?

Only if you make a personal commitment to do something about it. See Voter Registration section above.

It is up to you, the MRWF members.

Legislative Update - California

New Resolution to Terminate California Governor Gavin Newsom's Emergency Powers

Assemblymen Kiley and Gallagher take issue with Newsom's 39 Executive Orders, unilaterally changing 200 laws.

By Katy Grimes, May 19, 2020 3:00 pm

'This Resolution is meant to restore a proper balance between the legislative and executive branches.'

Monday [5/18/20] an Oregon judge declared "null and void" the pandemic-related emergency lockdown orders of Oregon Gov. Kate Brown in response to a lawsuit filed by churches and residents challenging the state shutdown, the Washington Times reported.

Two California lawmakers aren't waiting for a California judge to strike down Gov. Gavin Newsom's lockdown orders. "Since proclaiming a State of Emergency on March 4, Governor Newsom has issued 39 Executive Orders, unilaterally changing 200 laws spanning most sections of the California code," Assemblymen Kevin Kiley (R-Rocklin) and James Gallagher (R-Yuba City) said in a press statement about their new Resolution to terminate the Governor's emergency powers. "This includes creating new voting laws for an election six months away and overhauling Workers' Compensation rules."

Under Section 8629 of the California Emergency Services Act, the Legislature has authority to terminate the Governor's emergency powers. Assembly members Kevin Kiley (R-Rocklin) and James Gallagher (R-Yuba City) are introducing an Assembly Concurrent Resolution to exercise this statutory prerogative.

A "State of Emergency" in California is a legal term describing not merely conditions of extreme peril, but also the inadequacy of state and local institutions to combat the threat within the constraints of the State Constitution, Kiley and Gallagher wrote.

"This Resolution is meant to restore a proper balance between the legislative and executive branches," said Assemblyman Kiley. "To the extent the Governor retains extraordinary powers, they should be limited in scope in coordination with the Legislature, which has authority to terminate those powers altogether."

"We must take action to restore representative, constitutional government," Assemblyman Gallagher said. "The Governor has clearly overstepped his authority, from arbitrarily changing state laws, to using state agencies to threaten small business outside of their legal jurisdiction, to spending money outside the scope of legislative authorization. It is incumbent upon the Legislature to restore the balance of powers."

The nonpartisan Legislative Analyst, in a report Sunday on the Governor's May Revision, was "very troubled" by the authority the Governor seeks to take away from the Legislature. The report concludes: "we urge the Legislature to jealously guard its constitutional role and authority."

"The Emergency Services Act was designed to grant extraordinary powers to a Governor under conditions of extreme peril," Assemblyman Kiley said. "It was not meant to give a single person the ability to remake all of California law indefinitely. An open-ended state of emergency, with boundless powers vested in a chief executive, is incompatible with democratic government."

Gov. Newsom is facing 11 lawsuits for overstepping his Constitutional authority:

The CAGOP filed a lawsuit in Sacramento Superior Court asking Governor Newsom to prohibit ballot harvesting ahead of the May 12 Special Elections in Congressional District 25 and State Senate District 28.

The Center for American Liberty in coordination with the Law Office of D. Gill Sperlein and the Dhillon Law Group, sued California Governor Gavin Newsom, AG Becerra, and other state officials for depriving plaintiffs of their First and Fourteenth Amendment rights when Capitol protest permits were denied.

The Center for American Liberty, again in coordination with the Dhillon Law Group, filed a First Amendment lawsuit against Governor Gavin Newsom, California Attorney General Xavier Becerra, and named San Bernardino county supervisors, Riverside County supervisors, county sheriffs, and county health officers, in the United States District Court for the Central District of California, for criminalizing the free exercise of religion.

The California Salon Owners and Barbers Sue Gov. Newsom Over the Right to Earn a Living: New federal lawsuit challenges Gov. Newsom's 'vague' lockdown orders, threat of professional license revocations.

A lawsuit filed in federal court in April challenges the authority of California Gov. Gavin Newsom, Attorney General Xavier Becerra, the state's public health officials and Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti to decide which businesses are "essential" and "non-essential" with regard to business closure orders and the state-imposed lockdown over the coronavirus scare.
